

Uncover

Find your own way!

Discover your strengths and design your next challenge in the breathtaking Chetzeron and Crans-Montana region through leadership and personal development, art and guided activities by an experienced coach and an accomplished artist. 4 inspiring and unforgettable days at the top of the mountains.

Going through this uncertain period, we all crave freedom, nature and connection. With UNCOVER Chetzeron, a new edition after the successful adventure of UNCOVER Aletsch in August 2020, we will take you and other extraordinary people on a journey in a magnificent landscape and we will use movement, nature and creativity to reveal your purpose and potential. Through leadership coaching exercises, you will rediscover your power to change the flow of things, reflect upon your next career or life changes and dare to do the first steps in that direction. Experimenting with art and being inspired by amazing art pieces will help you to bring more innovation and creativity in your company and your life.

Chetzeron and Crans-Montana area offer both a perfect scenery and an ideal location for a transformative retreat. You will learn a lot about yourself and reveal your next challenge for a meaningful and joyful life.

Experienced coach and innovation expert Anja Wyden Guelpa and artist Séverin Guelpa will guide you on an amazing journey using mind, body and heart.

Start today to uncover who you are, free your creativity and design your next challenge!

Our experience to guide you during an amazing stay

Anja Wyden Guelpa

With civicLab, Anja Wyden Guelpa helps companies, CEOs and teams to thrive by working with them on innovation, leadership and their corporate culture. Anja teaches innovation and design thinking in two universities, is an executive coach, chairwoman or member of different boards of corporate companies and foundations.

Séverin Guelpa

Artist and director of Matza, Séverin Guelpa creates large installations inspired by the grandiose territories he explores, often at the heart of ecological or human issues. In parallel to his exhibitions around the world, he leads Matza and invites artists, scientists and architects with him to work in endangered regions such as the Aletsch glacier.
