Create your own way!

Discover your strengths, increase your performances and design your next challenge in the breathtaking Crans-Montana region through leadership and personal development, art and movement by an experienced coach and an accomplished artist. 4 inspiring and unforgettable days in the mountains.

You're at the top of your game. But maybe it is time to liberate yourself of your endless hamster wheel and start to look for what is important to you, what is your purpose and what makes you really happy and fulfilled.

Are there moments where you feel a strong craving for freedom or a longing for something more without knowing what is missing in your perfect and successful life?

If you want to create a richer life without compromising on your efficiency and performance, join us on UNCOVER Chetzeron. We will take you and other overachievers on a journey in a magnificent landscape. Through leadership coaching exercises and sparring partners, you will refine your purpose, reflect upon your next career or life changes and define an action plan. Discovering an artistic process will help you bring more innovation and creativity to your company and into your life.

Start today to uncover who you are, free your creativity and design your next challenge!

Our experience to guide you during an amazing retreat.

Anja Wyden Guelpa

With civicLab, Anja Wyden Guelpa helps companies, CEOs and teams to thrive by working with them on innovation, leadership and their corporate culture. Anja teaches innovation and design thinking in two universities, is an executive coach, chairwoman or member of different boards of corporate companies and foundations.

Séverin Guelpa

Artist and director of Matza, Séverin Guelpa creates large installations inspired by the grandiose territories he explores, often at the heart of ecological or human issues. Beside his exhibitions around the world, he leads Matza and works with other artists, scientists and architects in fragile territories such as the Aletsch glacier.
